Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship

In these days of social distancing we won't hug you or shake your hand, but we welcome you into our gathering.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. If you would like to request a special prayer, please let us know.

The Most Important Verse in Scripture?

I'm not really about pitting one verse against another. But have you ever thought about the question? What is the key verse in Scripture? The one that is most pivotal of all? If there were only one truth to teach, what would it be?

Far be it from me to give the unequivocal answer to that question; however, I recently heard a preacher say that if we could get people to believe one verse, then all of the other hard truths of Scripture would become manageable? Can you guess what that one basic truth is?

You may or may not be surprised to learn what he said. Genesis 1:1 "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." (NIV).

The beginning certainly is a question about which many have theorized. The debate between some theologians and some scientists seems unending. Some like John Clayton contend that the debate is only between theologians and scientists, and not between science and the Bible.

Surely, if we come to a faith in God and believe that he was in the beginning and that he created all things, then it follows that it is easy to believe that he could part the Red Sea or cause the walls of Jericho to fall, or even bring about the resurrection from the dead of Jesus. The power to accomplish these events does seem to pale when compared to the energy and power needed to create all things.

Do you believe that God created everything? If you believe, what impact is it making on your life today? Surely it must make a difference in all we do.

There is ultimately only one way to accept Genesis 1:1. That is by faith. The Hebrew writer reminds us that "And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him." Hebrews 11:6

Alex's and her parents returned home yesterday. They have already seen some improvement in her functioning. It will take time to know the full extent of the benefits.
