“Quote” of the week

"Anxiety does not empty tomorrow of its sorrows, but only empties today of its strength."

—Charles H. Spurgeon

Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship

In these days of social distancing we won't hug you or shake your hand, but we welcome you into our gathering.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. If you would like to request a special prayer, please let us know.

Bible Verses People Get Wrong (3)

We continue with ideas taken from Kathy Howard's article.

Matthew 18:20

"For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them."

Considering just this verse, we might believe that Jesus is with us only when we are with other believers. But the context of the larger passage is church discipline. When another believer sins, if he will not listen to one, two or three fellow believers should bring the matter to the church (Matthew 18:15-20).

Jeremiah 29:11

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

This verse is definitely a promise. But it's a promise for a particular people in a particular time. Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised that after Judah's pre-determined exile in Babylon, He would bring them back to the Promised Land. We often misappropriate promises. And while God does make a lot of promises to all believers, this particular promise isn't one of them.

Philippians 4:13

"I can do all this through him who gives me strength."

Philippians 4:13 is probably the most misused verse in the Bible. We pull it out of the surrounding passage and hold it out as God's obligation to empower our plans and dreams. Yet, Paul was writing about being content no matter his earthly circumstances. He could endure any difficulty or physical need through the strengthening power of Christ. Oh yes, Philippians 4:13 is a great promise indeed! Jesus will give us the strength we need to endure desperate need. His empowering presence will be with us through every difficult circumstance.

Psalms

1. Psalm 34 & 35
2. Psalm 36 & 37
3. Psalm 38 & 39
4. Psalm 40 & 41
5. Psalm 42, 43, & 44
6. Psalm 45, 46, & 47
7. Psalm 48, 49, & 50

Questions to answer each day:

1. What is the main theme of this Psalm?
2. What does this Psalm teach you about God?
3. How can what you just read inform your thoughts, words, and actions?

We were saddened to hear from Alex that the endometriosis had spread so much that it could not be removed.

Ruby has not done well following her latest treatment.

Great Lakes Christian High School has provided information on their current campaign to raise funds for building improvements. Feel free to take a brochure and consider helping.
