“Quote” of the week

"Unless we know the difference between flowers and weeds, we are not fit to take care of a garden. It is not enough to have truth planted in our minds. We must learn and labor to keep the ground clear of thorns and briars, follies and perversities, which have a wicked propensity to choke the word of life."

—Clyde Francis Lytle

Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship.

In these days of social distancing, we may not hug or shake your hand, but we welcome you into our gathering.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. If you would like to request a special prayer, please let us know.

“If I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing” (1 Cor. 13:2).

Loveless faith is useless faith.

In Matthew 17:19 the disciples came to Jesus wanting to know why they couldn't cast a demonic spirit from a child. Jesus responded, “Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it shall move; and nothing shall be impossible to you” (v. 20). He repeated the same principle in Matthew 21:21—“Truly I say to you, if you have faith, and do not doubt, you shall ... say to this mountain [the Mount of Olives], ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ [and] it shall happen.”

Those passages have puzzled many people because they've never seen anyone move a mountain. But Jesus wasn't speaking literally. Moving mountains would cause all kinds of ecological problems and would be a pointless miracle. The expression “able to move mountains” was a common figure of speech in that day, meaning “to surmount great obstacles.” Jesus was speaking of those who have the gift of faith—those who can move the hand of God through unwavering prayer.

The gift of faith is the ability to believe that God will act according to His will, no matter the circumstances. People with that gift are prayer warriors and tend to stand as rocks when others around them are falling apart. They see God's power and purposes at work, and they trust Him even when others doubt.

But, says Paul, even if you have such faith, if you don't have love, you are nothing. That's a harsh rebuke, but it places the emphasis where it belongs—on our motives. The Corinthians' motives were evident in their selfish pursuit of the showy gifts.

What motivates you? Remember, without love it doesn't matter what gifts you have, how eloquent your speech is, what you know, or what you believe. Only love can validate your service to Christ. - John MacArthur in Drawing Near

Camp Omagh to Launch New Logo and Branding Campaign during the 'Camp Omagh 85 Summers' Celebrations

Milton, ON — August 14, 2021 — Camp Omagh announced today the launch of its new logo and branding campaign (Vote Camp Omagh 85), during the 'Camp Omagh 85 Summers' Celebrations.

"We've taken advantage of the COVID lockdown in the past 18 months, and have accomplished a lot. Our plan is to improve our offerings to campers in 2022... broadening our footprint across 57 congregations," said Sean Toohey, Camp Omagh's President and P&M Committee Chair. "Our new branding and logo will appeal much better to all demographics, and will clearly set the tone for a more exciting and Christ-focused experience we plan to bring to campers for the 2022 season and beyond."

There are 2 new logo choices, and we're leaving it up to the 57 congregations to step in and give their own two-cents on which of the two we should use as the new Camp Omagh logo. September 2021 is 'Vote Camp Omagh 85'. Each participating congregation gets one vote. After a winner is chosen, you'll see all the other visuals around Camp Omagh aligning with this new direction: on the website, on socials, in advertising, and on products. It's still us. We're still Camp Omagh. More visually appealing, more consistent and, we hope, more instantly recognizable.

See Art for more information. See you in January, when we will select the T-shirt colours for 2022!
