“Quotes” of the week

"Dear Lord, either quiet the waves or lift me above them; it's too late to learn to swim."
 —Mary Crowley

Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship.

In these days of social distancing, we may not hug or shake your hand, but we welcome you into our gathering.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. Please let us know of any way we can serve you.

"I Am A Christian" by Maya Angelou

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I'm not shouting "I'm clean livin'."

I'm whispering "I was lost,
Now I'm found and forgiven."

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I don't speak of this with pride.

I'm confessing that I stumble
and need Christ to be my guide.

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I'm not trying to be strong.

I'm professing that I'm weak
And need His strength to carry on.

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success.

I'm admitting I have failed
And need God to clean my mess.

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I'm not claiming to be perfect,

My flaws are far too visible
But, God believes I am worth it.

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I still feel the sting of pain.

I have my share of heartaches
So I call upon His name.

When I say ... "I am a Christian"
I'm not holier than thou,

I'm just a simple sinner

Who received God's good grace, somehow

Message from Andy Fleming, Missionary in Ukraine: Hi dear friends and family, just a note from the Flemings and Yakovlevs in Ukraine to say that we are OK... Thank you everyone for your prayers!

We woke up yesterday morning to 6 artillery bangs and an explosion — the Ukrainians had shot down a Russian aircraft of some type. It fell in the neighborhood that my son-in-law

News & Notes

grew up in about 11 km from us--apparently one piece of shrapnel fell in our neighborhood and destroyed a car and truck and set off all the car alarms. Since that time, the air raid alerts has sent us to the shelter four times and tanks have approached Kiev and many missiles fired. The cost in human life is already in the hundreds after just two days and the explosions came pretty regularly last night--especially between 3am and 4:30am. We remained in the shelter for 8 hours last night, which is the basement of our apartment building normally inhabited by cats, and slept on old chairs, crates, and pallets. This whole situation is tragic and I'm sure close to the heart of God.

The picture is Tammy sleeping on a wooden box at about 2:30am this morning. We have some of the most amazing neighbors and I'm proud to be part of this community. Britain, Max and little Zak are all well, but we are all fairly exhausted from the experience. At the same, we now that many others have it much worse, and are grateful for the Ukrainians seeking justice and right for their country and nation.

Tammy and I are determined to stay with Brit, Max and Zak, and do whatever we can to help support them and the brothers and sisters in the church here.

Again, thank you for all your prayers. Please keep them coming!!

In His love and service, Andy
