“Quote” of the week

"The little troubles and worries of life may be as stumbling blocks in our way, or we may make them stepping-stones to a nobler character and to Heaven. Troubles are often the tools by which God fashions us for better things."
 —Henry Ward Beecher

Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. Please let us know of any way we can serve you.

The Greatest Overcomer of them All!

Who is not inspired by the competitor who makes a comeback after being down and seemingly out of the running! The runner who stumbles while coming off the starting blocks, but moves gradually into the lead, stirs the imagination of us all. The team that can come from behind in the last moments to win, excites us even more than the team that constantly wins by scoring big in the first part of the game.

Jesus made the most amazing comeback the world has ever seen. After being humiliated, insulted, spit upon, whipped, beaten, and nailed to a cross, His executioners claimed victory and declared Him dead. A military guard secured His tomb. How could anyone be more down and out than that?

Yet the struggle was not over; it was only the beginning. Three days later, He rose from the grave and reappeared as the victor over sin, death, and hell "" a comeback like no other in all of history.

Are we feeling out of the running today? Have we stumbled badly? Let's think about Jesus' suffering, ponder His resurrection, and ask Him to give us the victory. Just imagine what He has to offer us, no matter how far down we are now!

No one in history has overcome like our Lord (John 16:33; cf. 1 John 4:4). And as a result, we can triumphantly overcome as well.

—Mike Riley

Five Keys

I understand that in the Durham Cathedral there is an iron clad oak chest with five locks. In former days the keys to each of the five locks was held by a different official in the church. I don't know the purpose of the chest or the nature of its contents. In order for the chest to be opened each of the five officials who held the keys had to agree that it should be opened and also be present with their key to open it

News & Notes

Thanks to Chad and Robyn for getting the sandwich boards and putting them out each week.

Food Cupboard: Donations are always welcome. To date the cupboard hasn't seen much use. Unfortunately, the doors are hard to open so it may appear to those trying to access it that it is locked. We are looking for a solution.

"It is not the objective proof of God's existence that we want but the experience of God's presence. That is the miracle we are really after, and that is also, I think, the miracle that we really get."

—Frederick Buechner

"In any museum we will find quite ordinary things - clothes, a walking stick, a pen, pieces of furniture - which are only of value because they were possessed and used by some great person. It is the ownership which gives them worth. It is so with the Christian. The Christian may be a very ordinary person, but he acquires a new value and dignity and greatness because he belongs to God. The greatness of the Christian lies in the fact that he is God's."

—William Barclay

You will also find that multiple keys are needed to open many of the most worthwhile treasures today. They are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal 5:22).

This is the fruit that the Spirit living in us produces to make us more and more into the image of Jesus. What a great treasure that is.
