“Quote” of the week

"God is God. Because He is God, He is worthy of my trust and obedience. I will find rest nowhere but in His holy will, a will that is unspeakably beyond my largest notions of what He is up to."

—Elisabeth Elliot

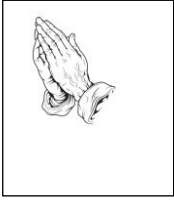

Visitors, Welcome to our gathering! Join us in worship and fellowship.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God’s inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. Please let us know of any way we can serve you.

God's Way to Get Up And Go

It's hard to find a better Scripture to serve as a goal or vision statement than Hebrews 10.24.

"Let's consider how to provoke one another towards love and good deeds."

First, notice the verse begins with the key to the beginning of biblical love and good deeds. In a group setting, love and good deeds should be considered together. One person's dreams and schemes will lack the crucial insight of others.

Second, consideration implies that putting to practice the love and work of God takes some thoughtful planning. In order for our families and church families to experience God's love, we've got to personalize it for them. In order for us to move on from declaring that love to proving it, the action must stem from observational consideration. The proof of love is in a sacrificial point of good deeds.

Third, in order to motivate (provoke or spur) people towards these goals, we must experiment. What gets people excited and moving? Since all groups and family units have different needs, the motivation methods should be focused on them. It's all too easy to formulate a strategy and perfect plan, but we'll never know of any flaws in that plan until others have had the opportunity to communicate their own thoughts. They have knowledge and insight that one person alone lacks. If after careful consideration and prayerful provoking there still isn't movement, reexamination might be necessary.

The goal of creating an environment of godly love and work is not a walk in the park, which is why the Hebrew writing records these three steps to success. How much of an impact could we make if we changed, "let's consider how to spur one another" to "we know what it takes to spur others on."
